

Coláiste Éamonn Rís

WHOLE SCHOOL POLICY ON HOMEWORK

This policy is rooted in the school's fundamental aim to assist students to develop their full potential in an atmosphere of co-operation and mutual respect.

RATIONALE

- The purpose of homework is to help students to revisit and reflect on work that has taken place in the classroom, or to encourage further research, with the ultimate aim of enhancing academic achievement.
- Homework may be of a written nature which may include practical or project work and also may include oral preparation or revision for exam purposes.

GOALS

- To ensure a consistent approach from teachers to the assignment and review of homework across the school.
- To establish procedures that allow for an equitable distribution of homework across all subjects without placing undue pressures on the students
- To promote student awareness of the value of homework to their overall progress in their subject fields.
- To enhance academic progress and achievements of students.
- To encourage parents to take an interest in and to share responsibility for their children's work and progress.

POLICY CONTENT

- The amount of homework given should be reasonable, taking into consideration the time it is likely to take to complete, and allowing for different levels of student ability.
- What is required of the student should be clear, and a due date for completion given.
- A rough guide will be suggested for each year group.
- A balance will be maintained between written/practical work and oral/learning work.
- Records of homework, grades and comments should be maintained by each teacher.
- Students will be given specific training in homework/study skills.
- This policy should be evaluated and reviewed on a regular basis.
- Special consideration will be given to students with special needs.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Each student should have a homework journal in which to make a record of details of homework.
- Students are expected to present their work on time and in a tidy and organised fashion and to do the homework set by the teacher.
- A student who, for health or domestic reasons, is unable to complete his homework shall present the relevant teacher(s) with a written note to this effect from his parent(s) / guardian(s).
- Parent(s) / guardian(s) are expected to periodically examine the homework journal to help them reconcile the amount of homework given with the time being spent by the student in completing it. Parents are expected to provide suitable conditions for homework and to ensure that the suggested amount of time is spent on homework.
- All homework given should be examined and corrected by the teacher involved within a reasonable time of the work being presented.
- It is recommended that students spend the following on homework and study;

1st Years: 1-2 hours

2nd Years: 1.5-2 hours

3rd Years – 2-3 hours

Transition Year – 1 hour-may vary upwards due to project work

5th Years: 3 hours and at least 5 hours at the weekend.

6th Years – 3 hours and at least 5 hours at the weekend.

- Homework must be written on the board by the teacher.
- Homework details for every subject (which may include written work, practical and project work, oral preparation and revision) must be written into his homework journal by the student.

IMPLEMENTATION

- Each subject Department will develop agreed guidelines on the amount and type of homework.
- The Year Head and Class Tutors of each year group, in consultation with the relevant subject teachers, will develop a homework schedule and time guide for the year group.

SUCCESS CRITERIA

- Good quality homework is being presented.
- Parents, students and teachers are satisfied with the effectiveness of the policy.
- Goals are being attained.

MONITORING PROCEDURES

- The students' journals shall be monitored periodically by the class tutor – to check for recording of homework and parent / guardian signature or comment.
- Student copies shall be examined regularly by the relevant subject teacher – to check for completion of homework, organisation of work, and student follow up to teacher correction.

SANCTIONS FOR HOMEWORK NOT DONE

- Subject teacher to give a piece of relevant extra work.
- Individual detention by subject teacher.
- Homework letter to parents, note in homework journal or text to parent for homework not done.
- If all the above have been implemented and the problem persists, a student may be booked.
- Teacher record that the homework is not done.

REVIEW PROCEDURES

- The policy will be reviewed every year.
- The views and experiences of teachers, students and parents / guardians will be sought in relation to the success criteria.
- School records will be analysed to assess any impact on students' academic progress.

Reviewed BOM : 14-9-2026.

Mission Statement

to develop responsible individuals who will participate fully in a changing society and to carry out this task in a Christian environment